

Status of Major Litigation

W 503.849

Mr. N. Gregory Taylor, Assistant Attorney General, gave the following report on Lyon v. State.

Mr. Lyon has filed a motion for summary judgment raising the high water/low water question. The case is expected to be argued the first of July. Depending on how the ruling comes out, this case may present a way of going to the appellate court on this issue.