

STATUS OF MAJOR LITIGATION

Assistant Attorney General, N. Gregory Taylor reported on the following cases:

U.S. v. California - Hearings were completed in Washington and New York City. The final argument will be held shortly in Denver, Colorado, where the Special Master is. A report of the Special Master is expected sometime during the summer, and the matter should be argued before the Supreme Court sometime in 1980.

California v. Nevada - The staff is preparing to file a motion with the U.S. Supreme Court to compel the Federal Government to be a party in this suit.
