SUMMARY:

Resumption of drilling operations from existing facilities (Platforms) on Oil and Gas Leases PRC 1824, PRC 3150 and PRC 4000 were authorized by the Commission on October 28, 1976. Resumption of exploratory drilling on PRC 3133 from existing Chevron facilities located on Platform Heidi on Lease PRC 3150 was authorized on December 17, 1981. As a condition to the resumption of drilling on these four leases, the Commission required that no more than one rig be operated at any time on any of the four platforms. The drilling term obligation on each of these leases was modified so that drilling on any one of the leases satisfied the drilling obligation for all four leases. Likewise, the leases were modified to provide for a ninety-day interval between drilling obligations.

Production from the leases is from four platforms. The lessees propose to explore remote prospects in PRC 3133 and PRC 3150 from Platforms Heidi and Hazel respectively. Extensive repairs must be performed on those platforms before drill rigs of sufficient capacity to reach the far prospects can be installed. This work is estimated to be completed in January 1983.

Chevron, as operator, has requested a deferment of the drilling obligations on all four leases from June 12, 1982 to February 1, 1983. During the deferment period extensive remedial work on wells and repairs to the platforms will be performed.
