CONSIDER SETTLEMENT OF LITIGATION AND PURCHASE OF PROPERTY, AS KAPILOFF LAND BANK TRUSTEE, AT CHICORY BEND, SACRAMENTO RIVER, CITY OF SACRAMENTO

BACKGROUND:

The Commission, at its regular meeting on August 3, 1994, approved a proposed settlement of litigation and boundary line agreement together with the purchase of a portion of the property with Kapiloff Land Bank funds, along with additional rights for future acquisition, involving lands at Chicory Bend along the Sacramento River within the City of Sacramento. The proposed settlement was contingent upon certain legal contingencies which did not occur, and the settlement failed as a result. The underlying litigation, commonly referred to as "the Lovelace litigation", is still pending in Sacramento Superior Court.

A new settlement is proposed for Commission consideration which would involve the following elements:

1. The subject property would be purchased from Lovelace by the State of California and third parties for a price of $1,100,000, contingent upon obtaining the necessary third party funds to make the purchase possible.
 - a. Of that amount, the Commission would contribute $400,000 from Kapiloff Land Bank funds;
 - b. Third parties would contribute $700,000 toward the aggregate purchase price from their respective funding sources. The parties to the litigation would agree to jointly and aggressively pursue such third party funding.
2. The parties would jointly communicate the existence of the tentative settlement to the Sacramento County Superior Court, together with a request that the current trial date be vacated, and all pretrail deadlines be suspended. Upon close of escrow, the litigation would be dismissed with prejudice.

3. The proposed settlement is intended to be comprehensive in nature, fully addressing and disposing of all claims of the parties. No separate provision for payment of any parties' costs or attorney's fees is contemplated.

If the proposed settlement is approved by the Commission, a detailed and formal settlement agreement will be drafted to memorialize the settlement terms.
