CONSIDERATION OF EMERGENCY REGULATION MODIFYING THE FEE USED TO FUND THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA'S PROGRAM FOR MARINE INVASIVE SPECIES CONTROL

PROPOSAL

The Commission's Staff proposes the adoption of an emergency amendment to increase the fee required to fund California's Marine Invasive Species Control Programs. The fee would be set, as of January 1, 2004, at $500 for each voyage by a vessel into California port or place if, during that voyage, the vessel has traveled outside the waters of the state. Current regulations provide for a fee of $200 per such voyage.

BACKGROUND

Under Section 71215(b) of the Public Resources Code (P.R.C.), the Commission is authorized and directed to establish a fee (the Fee) to be used to fund the State's marine invasive species control programs. The fee is not to exceed $1000 per voyage, defined as a transit by a vessel destined for any California port from a port or place outside the coastal waters of the state.

The Fee was established initially at $600 per voyage by emergency regulation that became effective on January 1, 2000. The Fee was reduced to $400 per voyage, effective April 30, 2000 by emergency regulation. That emergency regulation was replaced on August 29, 2000 with permanent regulations setting the fee at $400 per voyage. The Fee was further reduced to $200 per voyage, effective July 1, 2002 by emergency regulation. That emergency regulation was replaced on November 14, 2002 with permanent regulations setting the fee at $200 per voyage.

Representatives from the community subject to the fee have concurred with the imposition of a flat fee for each voyage. Since January of 2000, the Commission Staff has met regularly with a Technical Advisory Group ("the TAG"), consisting of representatives from the maritime industry subject to the regulations; other affected state agencies and environmental organization. In 2000, the TAG took note of the fact that the budgets for the various programs through the end of 2003 have largely been established, so costs are essentially fixed. As a result, any reduction in the Fee for some would result in an increase in the Fee for others. The TAG therefore recommended a flat Fee for everyone.

In 2003, Assembly Bill 433 was enacted, thereby extending California's ballast water management program through December 31, 2009. The program was also expanded to include certain types of voyages that were not previously covered, such as those along the west coast that do not leave the United States Exclusive Economic Zone. In consideration of these changes, the Commission Staff, along with the other agencies having responsibilities under the newly extended program, have prepared draft budgets through to the end of the new program period.

In October 2003, the Commission Staff, after reviewing costs, program responsibilities, budget proposals and other factors, has recommended that the Fee be increased to $500 per qualifying voyage beginning January 1, 2004. Staff's analysis is based upon a number of assumptions, the primary one being that the financial needs for the program will be in accordance with the Budget Change Proposals that have been submitted to date. These call for expenditures of $868,000 in Fiscal Year (FY) 2003/2004, $3,479,000 in FY 2004/2005 through FY 2008/2009 and, $1,991,000 in FY 2009/2010, at the end of which the program will expire. The other two assumptions were that the State would see about 7000 voyages each year against which the Fee could be levied and that the State would likely see a compliance rate of approximately 95%. These figures were based upon the experience of the shipping community and the Board of Equalization. Calculations were therefore based upon qualifying voyages per year.

With these assumptions, the BOE, the Commission and other affected State agencies concluded that the Fee could be set at $500 per voyage. The TAG was asked to respond to this proposed Fee reduction in November 2003 and has agreed with staff recommendations. A permanent regulation is being prepared. However, because the new responsibilities of the Commission and other involved State agencies begin on January 1, 2004, a Fee increase cannot be delayed until a permanent regulation is adopted. Collection of revenue necessary to support the mandated program must begin by January 1, 2004.

Along with an increase in the amount of the Fee, the proposed regulation would also modify certain captions and the description of the voyages to which the Fee would apply. This is necessary because of changes in the State's ballast water program brought about by A.B. 433.

The amount of the fee under this Law may be modified in the future. If the Commission finds that collection rates are higher or lower than anticipated, the Commission will have to consider again the appropriate amount of the fee. If that action is necessary, the modification will be made as an amendment to these regulations.

The Commission Staff considered alternatives to the proposed amendments, but found none that would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed and less burdensome to those who would be affected.

There is currently in effect Executive Order S-2-03, which suspends all pending or new rulemaking for a period of no more than 180 days from November 17, 2003. There are, however, provisions for exceptions by the Director of the Department of Finance for emergencies or other situations relating to health and safety. It is recommended that the Commission direct Staff to apply for approval of exception for the Fee modification.
