The California State Lands Commission has received a request from the Sacramento Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCo) to review and approve the boundaries for the town of Freeport Annexation (Annexation No. M00-047). The applicant to LAFCo is the city of Sacramento.

The area to be annexed consists of 79 parcels totaling 145 acres, more or less, from Sacramento County to the city of Sacramento. The annexation area is located within the city of Sacramento's adopted sphere of influence immediately south of the City, adjacent to the Sacramento River and west of Interstate 5. The site is bounded on the west by the Yolo County line (centerline of the Sacramento River), and on the north and east by the Sacramento City limits, and on the east by Interstate 5 (Caltrans right of way). The south property line of Bartley Cavanaugh golf course constitutes the southern project boundary. Once this proposed annexation has been approved, the entire Sacramento River east of the centerline, at this location, will be within the city limits of Sacramento.

Pursuant to Government Code section 56740(a), the Commission must consent before land under its jurisdiction can be annexed. Government Code sections 56740(b), (c), and (d), state that the Commission is to review and approve or deny the proposed description and finds it adequate pursuant to section 56740(b), (c), and (d).
